

Spring Into a Family Weekend of Fun with Special Love!

Spring Family Weekend is Special Love's introduction to Camp Fantastic and all of our programs for the families of children with cancer. It's open to the immediate family of any cancer patient up to 17 years old who has received cancer-specific treatment in the past three years (since August of 2006), and to any bereaved family with children 17 and younger. The weekend will include tons of fun, crafts, games, fishing, and much, much more!

Cost is just $25 per family, or you may check the scholarship request box on the registration form and your fee will be underwritten by a grant from the Virginia Council, ESA International. All food and lodging are covered and you'll even have some homemade souvenirs and prizes to take home with you! Lodging preference will be reserved on a first-come, first-served basis.

Call 888.930.2707 if you need more information.

Please register by April 3, 2009.
